

HOYLE HOUSE ESTATE sold 1889 by Executors of Samuel Newton to John Grayson Lowood, who sold the greater part to Thomas Oxley in 1894. He in turn sold the Garden Village site to Samuel Fox & Co. (date uncertain). Building began in 1912, Sitwell Avenue 1914; work ceased during Great War, to be completed in 1918. BD.